

Summary of Vibracore 27

Only a short sedimentary section was sampled in Vibracore 27. The sequence is composed of mixed carbonate and terrigenous clastic sediments with carbonates being dominant. These sediments are normally graded from graveliferous coralline algal clasts at the base to medium-sized sand at the top.

